Transit-Focused Beijing City Walk Day Tour - 1 Day

Tailored for international transit passengers at Beijing Capital International Airport, this city walk product leverages resources from the themed market of the 4th Beijing International Canal Arts Fest. Available for on-site sign-up at CTG airport dedicated counter, it converts transit passengers into inbound visitors. Making use of their layover time, the tour unlocks brand-new cultural-tourism experiences in Beijing and delivers one-stop inbound travel services for international guests.

Tour Highlights

798 Art District

Stroll freely through art blocks, cultural-creative exhibition halls and art installations. Experience Beijing's distinctive urban charm where contemporary art blends with old-industrial heritage, and immerse yourself in this iconic Beijing art landmark.

The 4th Beijing International Canal Arts Fest

This year's edition coincides with China's Mid-Autumn Festival, bringing together approximately 70 artists from 14 performing arts troupes across 13 countries along the banks of the Grand Canal. Through a rich lineup of 22 performances by Chinese and international troupes, an international food bazaar, and interactive Chinese intangible cultural heritage experiences, the event blends the grandeur of a World Cultural Heritage site with the warm, intimate charm of a traditional Chinese festival-creating a truly cross-border artistic celebration.
