240-Hour Visa-Free Transit in China

China is implementing a 10-day (240 hours) visa-free transit policy. The transit program allows visitors who have existing flight bookings from China to a third country (region) to snag a visa on arrival at a Chinese airport (port) and stay for 10 days before departure. Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan all count as third destinations.

Passport holders of 54 countries, including the United States and the United Kingdom, can enter visa-free through any of the 60 open airports (ports) in 24 provincial regions, covering popular tourist cities like Beijing, Shanghai, Xi'an, Chengdu and Guangzhou.

Meanwhile, citizens from 38 countries can enter China visa-free for up to 30 days.

Date	Destinations	Attractions, Meals & Transport
1	Day 1 Harbin	Lunch In the morning, pay a visit to Harbin starts from Siberian Tiger Park - the largest natural park for Siberian tiger in the world - where you could take an enclosed bus and have a close look at the Siberian tigers. After lunch, take an outside tour to Harbin Opera House. Embedded within Harbin's wetlands, it is designed in response to the force and spirit of the northern city's untamed wilderness and frigid climate. Appearing as if sculpted by wind and water, the building seamlessly blends in with nature and the topography - a transfusion of local identity, art, and culture. The last stop of this day is Unit 731 Museum. It used to be an experimental base for the use of living Chinese and North Koreans to conduct biological weapons and chemical weapons. After all visit, you will be transferred to hotel. Service ends.
