3	Jinshanling Travel Guide	 1. [2 hours] Classic Great Wall. Enter from the Middle Gate – walk along the pedestrian path – to Zhuanduokou, then hike from the Middle Gate to Houchuankou. After visiting Houchuankou, return to the Middle Gate along the pedestrian path. Vehicles will wait at the visitor center parking lot. -- This route is recommended when the East Gate is closed in winter. 2. [3 hours] Great Wall Photography Tour. Enter from the Middle Gate – walk along the pedestrian path – to the brickwork entrance, then hike from the brickwork entrance to the [Xiaojinshan Tower]. After the visit, take the one-way cable car from Xiaojinshan back to the Middle Gate. 3. [4 hours] Must-see Great Wall. Enter from the Middle Gate – walk along the pedestrian path – to the brickwork gate, then hike eastward from the brickwork gate to the East Five-Eyed Tower. After visiting the East Five-Eyed Tower, walk along the tourist path to the East Gate of the scenic area, where vehicles will be waiting. -- This route is highly recommended, as the Flower Tower along the way is a classic section of the Jinshanling Great Wall.

----- Return to Beijing -----

After the tour, please return to the designated meeting point/visitor center/bus before the departure time.

You will pass through a checkpoint on your way back to Beijing, so please bring your passport/ID card.

To ensure you can complete the 5.5-hour Great Wall tour, please note that return time may be slightly adjusted depending on arrival time and traffic conditions.

Jinshanling is known for its scenic mountain landscapes and can offer a quieter Great Wall experience than some of Beijing's more heavily visited sections, although visitor numbers vary by season and date.

While enjoying the natural beauty, you'll need considerable physical stamina. The entire Great Wall journey takes approximately 4 hours. The distance to the Great Wall is also quite long. It's close to Beijing, but located in Hebei Province. A one-way trip takes about 2 hours, while the Mutianyu section takes 1.5 hours. The return trip may also be delayed due to checkpoints. Please be aware.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q: What is the difference between the two Jinshanling Great Wall tour options?

A: The join-in group tour costs USD 45 per person and departs from a designated meeting point. The small-group tour costs USD 95 per person and includes door-to-door pick-up and drop-off within Beijing's designated service area.

Q: How long will I spend at Jinshanling Great Wall?

A: The itinerary allows approximately 5.5 hours to explore Jinshanling Great Wall, offering time for hiking, photography, and enjoying the surrounding mountain scenery.

Q: Are entrance tickets included in the tour price?

A: Yes. The entrance ticket to Jinshanling Great Wall is included in both tour options. Optional activities, such as cable car rides, may require additional payment depending on the selected itinerary.

Q: Is lunch included in the tour?

A: No. Lunch is at your own expense. You can arrange your own meal during the visit.

Q: What should I bring for the Great Wall hike?

A: Wear comfortable hiking shoes and bring drinking water, sun protection, and weather-appropriate clothing. The route includes uneven steps and slopes, so a reasonable level of fitness is recommended.

Q: Can I customize the tour or arrange pick-up outside Beijing's Fourth Ring Road?

A: Pick-up and drop-off outside the designated service area may be available for an additional charge. Please contact CITS or the tour operator in advance to confirm the arrangements and any extra fees.
