

Journey to Mt. Kawagebo - Songtsam Yunnan Circuit - 5 Days

Journey to Mt. Kawagebo - Songtsam Yunnan Circuit offers breathtaking landscapes and wonderfully diverse cultures. Many of the twenty-five different ethnic minorities currently living in Yunnan can be found in this area, which features snow-capped peaks more than 6,000m high, glaciated gorges, and terraced rice fields. The peaceful people that inhabit the region have not only preserved this area for generations, but have also nurtured this “Shangri-La”.

Route

Shangri-La-Meili-Shangri-La

Attentive guide service

-Well-trained local guides are specialists on Tibet and the local region and will travel with you throughout the trip

Vehicles and drivers

-Travel in well maintained SUVs or MPVs. Experienced Songtsam drivers drive all vehicles.

Hotels and lodges

-Enable guests to experience the different cultures and landscapes inherent in these regions.

Meals

-During your journey you will get to try Tibetan cuisine, which includes a good amount of barley flour-based items, such as dumplings and noodles, as well as red meat, such as yak, beef and pork.

-At Songtsam lodges, we provide set menus, which combine Tibetan and Chinese cuisine and include complimentary soft drinks and a glass of wine.

Spotlight

- Important Tibetan monastery visits.
- Local family visits of different ethnic minorities: Tibetan, Naxi and Lisu.
- Learn how to print traditional Tibetan prayer flags.
- Incense burning and Tibetan holy site worshipping.
- Discovering hundreds of different kinds of rhododendrons (usually blossoming from late April to mid-May in Shangri-La, and late May in Meili).
- Revealing the home place of numerous flowers you find around the world.
- Wild mushrooms growing in the woods (usually from July to September) whilst hiking mountains and village paths.
