| Date | Destinations | Attractions, Meals & Transport |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Day 1 Hong Kong | airport-hotel transfer in Hong KongdinnerArival transfer to hotel, then start to enjoy your tour in Hong Kong. Chun Yeung Market is a wet market, hop on an eastbound tram heading towards the North Point tram terminus and without warning, you'll swing off the broad King's Road onto a narrow street which is lined on either side with buzzy stalls selling fresh fruits, vegetables, meat and seafood. Some of the best places for inexpensive shopping are street markets, and the Temple Street is one of them. The market is well-known with locals and tourists as a very good place for bargain shopping. The highlight of Upper Lascar Row is the seemingly endless row of antique stores, offering an eclectic collection of Chinese calligraphy, arts and vintage furniture.Local delicacy:Egg waffles is baked in an egg-shaped waffle iron. The egg puffs are traditionally eaten plain in Hong Kong.Wonton noodles is a noodle dish of Cantonese origin. Excellent wontons, bouncy noodles and flavorful broth are three essential elements that make up a superb bowl of wonton noodlesSugar Cane Juice is refreshing and extremely sweet, it's usually made on the spot by pressing steamed sugar cane with a machine. |
